"Coke Zero joins the legion of fans who cheered on their team to this thrilling victory," said Bill O'Brien, Senior Vice President and General Manager of the West Region, Coca-Cola. "With this special design, we're raising a congratulatory toast to the Seattle Seahawks, their staff and the Seahawks' '12th-Man' loyalists."

A limited number of specially-marked 12-ounce Coke Zero cans, produced starting today at the Company's Bellevue plant, will be sold at select Seattle and Washington state retail locations while supplies last.

Coca-Cola Zero is the official soft drink of the Seattle Seahawks.
