The Coca-Cola Company Announces Election of Corporate Officer and Declares Regular Quarterly Dividend

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The Board of Directors of The Coca-Cola Company today announced the election of a corporate officer, along with declaring the company's regular quarterly dividend.

Jennifer Henry

Jennifer Henry, Head of Strategy and Corporate Development, was elected Senior Vice President, effective immediately. Henry joined the company July 7.

In this role, Henry is responsible for enterprise strategy development. She identifies opportunities for growth that can evolve into scalable, revenue-driving ventures.

Henry joined Coca-Cola after more than 13 years at McKinsey & Co., where she was a partner. Henry served clients in the consumer and retail sector in the United States and internationally across strategy and growth topics. Her areas of experience include corporate and portfolio strategy; revenue growth management; go-to-market and sales excellence.

Henry began her career in 2005 as a leveraged finance analyst for the former Wachovia, which is now part of Wells Fargo. In 2007, she joined Pamlico Capital as an associate.

In 2009, Henry moved to McKinsey. She was named partner in 2018.

Henry earned a bachelor's degree in finance and management from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia and an MBA in marketing and operations from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

Quarterly dividend

The Coca-Cola Company today declared a regular quarterly dividend of 51 cents per common share, payable Oct. 1 to shareowners of record of the company as of the close of business Sept. 15.
