

February 4, 2014

Coke Zero Dresses Up for Champion Seahawks

Commemorative cans open even more happiness for World Champ Team

RENTON, Wash.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The Seahawks returned to home turf to clean out their lockers until next season. When they arrived, they were surprised with some special, ice-cold refreshment courtesy of Coke Zero, the team's official soft drink. Coca-Cola distributed the limited-edition cans featuring the team logo at their training facility.

 Richard Sherman is just as quick finishing a special can of Coke Zero as he is on the field. (Photo: ...

Richard Sherman is just as quick finishing a special can of Coke Zero as he is on the field. (Photo: Business Wire)

Produced one day following the Championship at The Company's Bellevue, WA., plant, the commemorative cans will be available in Seattle and Washington-area stores while supplies last.

Editors: The photography was shot at noon today at the Virginia Mason Athletic Center in Renton. Please call Corby Casler, Director of Public Affairs and Communications, Coca-Cola West Region, (206) 669-2978 if you have any questions.

Please download the footage from the link below along with three photos:

<https://ws.onehub.com/folders/q27mdked>

1. B-Roll (for television editors) – Seattle Seahawk Champions clear out their lockers while getting refreshed with limited-edition Coke Zero.
2. Jpeg 1630-33 – Commemorative Coke Zero case takes center stage in Seattle Seahawks' lockers.
3. Jpeg 1631 – Richard Sherman is just as quick finishing a special can of Coke Zero as he is on the field.

Coca-Cola West Region
Corby Casler, 206-669-2978
Public Affairs & Communications
ccasler@coca-cola.com

Source: Coca-Cola