THE COCA-COLA COMPANY DIRECTORS BUFFETT AND REINHARD WILL NOT STAND FOR RE-ELECTION TO BOARD

ATLANTA, Feb. 14, 2006 -- The Coca-Cola Company today announced that Warren E. Buffett and J. Pedro Reinhard have informed the Company that they do not intend to stand for re-election to the Board of Directors at the upcoming Annual Meeting of Shareowners.

Buffett said that his decision was a consequence of the increased demands on his time resulting from Berkshire Hathaway's acquisitions of new companies. He also noted that Berkshire Hathaway intends to retain its holdings of Coca-Cola stock.

"Leaving Coca-Cola is difficult, as it has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve on the Board of this wonderful company," said Buffett. "Under Neville Isdell's leadership, the Company is implementing the right strategy to create value for its shareowners and realize the potential of the world's greatest brand. I wish Neville, his leadership team and all the employees of this great enterprise every success as we move forward."

E. Neville Isdell, chairman and chief executive officer, said, "Everyone at Coca-Cola is immensely proud of Warren Buffett and Berkshire Hathaway's long and continuing stake in our Company. And we have benefited immeasurably from Warren's wise and sage counsel over the past 17 years. We have been extremely fortunate that Warren has served our Company for so many years, and I look forward to continuing to count on him even after he has left our Board."

Speaking of Reinhard, Isdell added, "On behalf of our Board, I also want to thank Pedro for his service and contributions to our Company. Pedro's sound judgment and perspective have been welcomed by all of our directors, and we wish him well as he enters a new phase in his career."

"It has been a pleasure to serve on the Board of The Coca-Cola Company for the past few years," said Reinhard. "I have enjoyed working with the Company's leadership team, and am confident that the Company will perform well in the future."

Both Buffett's and Reinhard's terms expire on April 19, 2006, at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareowners. The Company has no immediate plans to fill the vacated board seats.

The Coca-Cola Company is the world's largest beverage company. Along with Coca-Cola, recognized as the world's most valuable brand, the Company markets four of the world's top five soft drink brands, including Diet Coke, Fanta and Sprite, and a wide range of other beverages, including diet and light soft drinks, waters, juices and juice drinks, teas, coffees and sports drinks. Except for these restrictions, beginning on the Grant Date, the Recipient shall, with respect to the Shares, have all the rights of a stockholder of the Company, including the right to vote the Shares and to receive all distributions and dividends paid with respect to the Shares.

- (e) The Recipient shall indicate his or her acceptance of this Agreement by signing and returning this Agreement by the Acceptance Date indicated above.

- (f) In the event that the Company's shares, as a result of a stock split or stock dividend or combination of shares or any other change or exchange for other securities, by reclassification, reorganization or otherwise, are increased or decreased or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares of stock or other securities of the Company or of another corporation, the number of Shares to be awarded under this Agreement shall be adjusted to reflect such change in such manner as the Board of Directors of the Company or the Compensation Committee may deem appropriate. If any such adjustment shall result in a fractional share, such fraction shall be disregarded.

- (g) The Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, may reduce the number of Shares or payments provided to a Recipient under this Agreement if it determines that a Recipient has failed to meet any other applicable performance standards (including but not limited to, compliance with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and any applicable laws), or if the Recipient owes any money to the Company or a Related Company and has failed to repay such obligation.

- (5) In the event Recipient engages in a “Prohibited Activity” (as defined below), at any time during the term of this Agreement, or within one year after termination of Recipient’s employment from the Company or any Related Company, or within one year after the Release Date, whichever occurs latest, the Shares shall be forfeited and, if applicable, any profit or gain associated with the Shares shall be forfeited and repaid to the Company.
