ATLANTA, July 17, 2008 — The Coca-Cola Company today reported second quarter earnings per share of $0.61, a decrease of 24 percent versus the prior year on a reported basis, and $1.01 after considering items impacting comparability, an increase of 19 percent. Earnings per share for the quarter included a net charge of $0.40 per share primarily related to a non-cash impairment charge at Coca-Cola Enterprises Inc. (“CCE”), an equity investee. Earnings per share for the second quarter of 2007 were $0.80 and included a net charge of $0.05 per share, primarily related to restructuring charges and a non-cash impairment charge at an equity investee.

“Our results in the quarter underscore our ability to continue delivering volume growth and double-digit comparable earnings per share growth, despite the combined impacts of several one-off events and a more challenging economic environment,” said Neville Isdell, chairman of the Board, The Coca-Cola Company. “We continue to manage the business for the long term by investing in brand building and innovation with an unrelenting focus on improving our effectiveness and efficiency. We have made significant progress since the turnaround began in 2004 and I am confident going forward under Muhtar’s leadership that the business will continue to be managed by investing for long-term sustainable growth and value.”

President and Chief Executive Officer Muhtar Kent said, “Our second quarter performance demonstrates our ability to leverage the strengths of our system to achieve balanced growth. Our results were once again led by our international operations, which delivered 5 percent unit case volume growth, and we maintained volume in North America despite significant challenges. Latin America continues to be a key contributor to our results, along with solid performance in many of our emerging markets including China, Turkey, India, Eastern Europe, Southern Eurasia, North and West Africa and the Middle East. We have accelerated our global volume and value share gains as consumers connect with our brands and our system executes in the marketplace.

“We are clearly operating in a more challenging macroeconomic environment. A strength of our system is the ability to work with our bottling partners and customers to understand the local factors impacting consumer behavior, adjust our plans where appropriate, while continuing to invest and build share for the long term. Both the fundamentals of our business and the strength of our brands remain solid. Through our focus on superior execution and driving productivity, I remain confident we are building a stronger Coca-Cola system for the future.”

(All references to growth rate percentages and share compare the results of the period to those of the prior year comparable period.)

Financial Review

Operating Results

Net operating revenues for the quarter increased 17 percent, reflecting a 3 percent increase in concentrate sales, a 2 percent increase from structural changes resulting primarily from acquisitions of certain bottlers, a 3 percent benefit from pricing and mix and a 9 percent positive currency impact.

Cost of goods sold increased 16 percent for the quarter, reflecting a 3 percent increase in concentrate sales, a 2 percent increase from structural changes resulting primarily from acquisitions of certain bottlers, an 8 percent increase from currency and increases in commodity-based input and freight costs.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the quarter increased 16 percent, with structural changes primarily related to bottler acquisitions, increased costs from brand acquisitions and currency increasing selling, general and administrative expenses by 14 percent. The Company continued to achieve expense leverage through investing in marketing to support brand growth while effectively managing general and administrative expenses through productivity initiatives.

The Company had other operating charges in the quarter of $97 million related to restructuring charges, contract termination costs and asset write-downs.

Operating income for the quarter increased 18 percent, reflecting the growth in gross profit, the investments in marketing and increased sales and service expenses.

After considering items impacting comparability, operating income increased 20 percent. Currency increased operating income in the quarter by 11 percent. Based on current expectations of market rates for the remainder of the year and benefits of hedging coverage in place, the Company currently expects a favorable currency impact on 2008 operating income of at least mid single digits.

Equity income declined in the quarter primarily as a result of our proportionate share of the non-cash impairment charge recorded by CCE.

In the quarter, the Company recorded gains on the sales of assets of $102 million primarily related to the sale of a Brazilian bottler to Coca-Cola FEMSA, S.A.B. de C.V.

Effective Tax Rate

The reported effective tax rate for the quarter was 25.0 percent and the underlying effective tax rate on operations for the quarter was 22.0 percent. The variance between the reported rate and the underlying rate was due to the tax impact of various separately disclosed items impacting comparability.

The Company anticipates that its underlying effective tax rate on operations for the full year 2008 will be 22.0 percent. The Company's estimated underlying effective tax rate does not reflect the impact of discrete events, which, if and when they occur, are separately recognized in the appropriate period.

Productivity Savings

The Company is targeting $400 to $500 million in annualized savings from productivity initiatives by year-end 2011 to provide additional flexibility to invest for growth. The savings are expected to be generated in a number of areas, including aggressively managing operating expenses supported by lean techniques, redesigning key processes to drive standardization and effectiveness, better leveraging our size and scale, and driving savings in indirect costs through the implementation of a "procure-to-pay" program. In realizing the savings, the Company expects to incur total nonrecurring costs by 2011 approximately equal to the annualized savings.

New Operating Structure

As previously communicated, effective July 1, 2008, the Company made certain changes to its operating structure to align geographic responsibility. The European Union Group was reconfigured to include the Adriatic and Balkans Region and was renamed the Europe Group; and the remaining Eurasia Group was combined with the Africa Group into the new Eurasia & Africa Group. The changes in operating structure did not impact the other existing geographic operating segments, Bottling Investments or Corporate. Reporting on the new structure will start with third quarter 2008 results. Reclassified operating segment information will be published during the third quarter of 2008.

Items Impacting Prior Year Results

In 2007, the second quarter results included a net charge of $0.05 per share primarily related to restructuring charges and a non-cash impairment charge at an equity investee. In 2007, the first quarter results included a net charge of $0.02 per share primarily related to an asset write-off in the Philippines bottler, partially offset by gains on the sales of the equity interest in a Brazilian bottler and real estate in Spain.

Conference Call

The Company will host a conference call with investors and analysts to discuss the second quarter results today at 8:30 a.m. (EDT). The Company invites investors to listen to the live audiocast of the conference call at the Company's Web site, www.thecoca-colacompany.com in the "Investors" section.
